
DETERMINATION MADE IN RELATION TO THE GREENCASTLE ROYAL BLACK PERCEPTORY 336 PARADE NOTIFIED TO TAKE PLACE IN BELFAST ON SATURDAY 31ST AUGUST 2019.

INTRODUCTION

1. Section 8(1) of the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998, provides that:

"The Commission may issue a determination in respect of a proposed public procession imposing on the persons organising or taking part in it or on any persons supporting it such conditions as the Commission considers necessary."
2. The Commission has noted the details provided on the Form 11/1 submitted on the 15th August 2019 concerning the Greencastle Royal Black Preceptory 336 parade in Belfast on Saturday 31st August 2019. The Commission has considered whether a determination under section 8 should be made in respect of this parade.
3. In considering whether to exercise its power under Section 8, the Commission has taken into account its previous determinations in relation to this parade. It has also considered all other aspects of the parade notified by the organisers, including its nature and purpose, and has considered all other information received in relation to it. The Commission has concluded that, in the particular circumstances, it should exercise its power under Section 8 to make a determination in the terms outlined in the following paragraphs.

BACKGROUND

4. The notified purpose is "To parade from the orange hall prior to joining the main parade."
5. The notified outward route is "Greencastle Orange Hall, Whitewell Road, Shore Road, Graymount Road, Graymount Crescent, Graymount Park, Grays Lane, Shore Road, Shore Crescent, board transport to Belfast, Uni of Ulster, York Street, Donegall Street, Clifton Street, Crumlin Road and Denmark Street." The notified return route is "Whitewell Road, Gunnel Hill, Mulderg Drive, board transport, Shore Crescent, Shore Road, Whitewell Road, Greencastle Orange Hall."
6. The notified number of participants is 80, including 1 band, and an unknown number of supporters.

7. The outward parade is notified to commence at 8.00am from Greencastle Orange Hall and to disperse at 8.45am from Denmark Street. The return parade is notified to commence at 7.00pm from Hazelwood Primary School and to disperse at 7.30pm from Greencastle Orange Hall.
8. This is one of a number of Royal Black Institution parades taking place in Belfast on this day, as part of the annual 'Last Saturday' demonstrations.
9. In the absence of a local agreement in respect of this parade in the Greencastle area, the Commission has concluded that, should the parade process both outward and return routes without restriction, there will be an adverse effect on already fragile community relations and potential for public disorder. The Commission must therefore fulfil its statutory obligation and make a determination on the parade.
10. The Commission has considered the rights of individual freedom of expression of those involved in this annual parade and the rights of the community to be treated respectfully. The Commission considers that the conditions it now imposes are necessary, fair and proportionate.
11. A contentious stretch of the notified outward route is at Clifton Street/Donegall Street. The sensitivities at this location have been fully documented in previous Commission determinations. For the purposes of this determination, the Commission has not restated all relevant information or repeated its considerations. However, it refers interested parties to the relevant determinations which are accessible on its website.
12. The Commission has had regard to its statutory Guidelines in its considerations of the parade's potential for public disorder and the potential impacts upon community relations and community life. The Commission has fully considered all relevant human rights aspects.
13. The conditions imposed by the Commission are proportionate, necessary and fair and strike a fair balance between the needs of the community and the rights of the individual.
14. The Commission continues to encourage all parties to this parading dispute to enter into dialogue to achieve an accommodation which reflects the needs of the local communities. As set out in the Commission's statutory rules, it is a fundamental principle that any structures established must have the confidence and endorsement of those most closely concerned.

LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS

15. The Commission has had regard to the Guidelines issued under Section 5 of the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998 ("the Guidelines"). The Commission has also been alert to its duties as a public authority under Section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998. From the perspective of the parade organisers, the Convention rights engaged are those protected by Articles 9 and 10 and, in particular, Article 11. None of these rights is absolute.
16. Those who live, work, shop, trade and carry on business in the affected locality enjoy rights under Article 8 of the Convention and Article 1 of the First Protocol. Again, none of these rights is absolute. The Commission has also been mindful of the provisions of Article 17 and its obligations under Article 2 of the Convention.
17. It is not possible for all of those who would claim the benefit of the Human Rights Act 1998 to exercise and enjoy their Convention rights to the fullest extent where rights are in competition with each other. The Commission has therefore undertaken a balancing exercise, consistent with its statutory Guidelines, to make a determination that is fair and proportionate in all the circumstances.
18. As required by the statutory Guidelines, the Commission has had regard to the seven North principles. One of the seven fundamental principles identified by the North Report is that all those involved should work towards the resolution of difficulties through local accommodation.
19. As stated in paragraph 4.5 of the Guidelines, the Commission takes into account any communications between parade organisers and the local community or the absence thereof and will assess the measures, if any, offered or taken by parade organisers to address genuinely held relevant concerns of members of the local community.
20. Having considered all the evidence, information and advice available to it, the Commission has determined that conditions should be placed on the parade. In imposing these conditions, the Commission pursues the legitimate aims laid down in the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms of seeking to prevent disorder and to protect the rights and freedoms of others. The conditions are not such as to affect significantly the individual's right to assemble.

21. Having regard to the factors set out above the Commission considers that the conditions it now imposes are necessary and proportionate to the aim pursued and strike a fair balance between the needs of the community and the rights of the individual. The legal, factual and human rights issues are of considerable complexity and require, ultimately, the formation of a carefully considered and finely balanced judgement on the part of the Commission.

DETERMINATION

The Parades Commission's determination is that the following conditions are placed on the organiser and participants in the parade by Greencastle Royal Black Preceptory 336, in Belfast on Saturday 31st August 2019.

- A. On the outward parade no music shall be played from the assembly point until the parade has reached the junction of Whitewell Road and Shore Road and the full parade has passed the junction of Catherine Court.
- B. On the outward parade, only a single drum beat, on a single side drum, shall be played on any section of the notified route between the junction of Union Street and Donegall Street and the junction of Clifton Street and the Westlink (the junction closest to Stanhope Street which is the first junction processing upwards towards Carlisle Circus).
- C. No supporters shall accompany the parade on any section of the notified route between the junction of Union Street and Donegall Street and the junction of Clifton Street and the Westlink (the second junction processing upwards towards Carlisle Circus).
- D. On the return parade, supporters are prohibited from accompanying the parade on that stretch of its notified route between the junction of Graymount Road and the Shore Road and Greencastle Orange Hall on Whitewell Road. The supporters may instead proceed on the footpath to Greencastle Orange Hall via Graymount Road and Graymount Crescent, turn into the public access laneway between Graymount Crescent and Whitewell Road, and turn left onto Whitewell Road to the Orange Hall.
- E. On the return route the band shall play no music, other than a single drumbeat on a single side drum, between the junction of Graymount Road and the Shore Road and the notified dispersal point. The band may play one verse of the National Anthem at the dispersal point immediately prior to the dispersal of the parade.
- F. The parade organisers shall ensure that the parade begins and disperses promptly.
- G. Only the band notified on the Form 11/1 shall participate in the parade.

- H. When the parade is in progress there shall be no undue stoppages or delays.
- I. The parade organisers shall ensure that all participants including any marshals, band leaders and band members are given written details of the restrictions.
- J. The organisers and all participants in the parade shall comply with the conditions set out in the Code of Conduct. For ease of reference, these are reproduced below.
- K. As shown at Appendix A of the Code of Conduct, the Commission re-affirms that all participants in this parade must behave with due regard for the rights, traditions and feelings of others in the vicinity; refrain from using words or behaviour which could reasonably be perceived as intentionally sectarian, provocative, threatening, abusive, insulting or lewd; obey the lawful directions of parade organisers and stewards at all times, from assembly to dispersal and comply with police directions and in accordance with legislation.
- L. The Commission further re-affirms the importance of respectful behaviour in the vicinity of interface areas, namely that there shall be no singing, chanting, or loud drumming and that marching should be dignified. More generally, no paramilitary-style clothing is to be worn at any time during the parade and flags, bannerettes and symbols relating to a proscribed organisation shall in no circumstances be displayed.
- M. The parade organisers shall arrange for the presence of an adequate number of stewards to ensure that all parade participants act in an orderly manner.
- N. The parade organisers shall ensure that all stewards and participants obey any direction given by the police in relation to this parade.

APPENDIX A

Guidance for Anyone Participating in Parades

A Behaviour

All participants in parades should:

- behave with due regard for the rights, traditions and feeling of others in the vicinity,
- refrain from using words or behaviour which could reasonably be perceived as being intentionally sectarian, provocative, threatening, abusive, insulting or lewd,
- obey the lawful directions of parade organisers and stewards at all times, from assembly to dispersal,
- abide by the conditions of this Code of Conduct,
- comply with police directions and in accordance with legislation.

B Dress

No paramilitary-style clothing is to be worn at any time during a parade.

C Parade

Whenever possible, the parade should be positioned on one side of the carriageway so as to allow for the free flow of traffic, or as otherwise stipulated by police.

D Route

Participants should keep to the designated route as directed by the police.

E Alcohol

Alcohol should not be consumed immediately prior to, or during a parade. An organizer or steward, who believes a participant to be under the influence of alcohol, should take the necessary measures to remove that person from the parade.

F Bands and Music

Each band must clearly display its name. Restrictions on the playing of music will be in accordance with the conditions as set out in Appendix B of this Code. No musical instrument will bear any inscription or mark of a proscribed organisation.

G Flags etc.

Flags and other displays often have a legitimate historical significance, but in no circumstances should such items relating to a proscribed organisation be displayed.

H Stewards

The names of stewards will have been notified to the police and the Parades Commission at the time of notifying the proposed parade.

Stewards should:

- be properly trained
- be briefed by the organisers prior to the parade
- carry proof of their status at all times during the event, and provide this information to police on request
- be fully aware of their responsibilities and role
- be highly visible by means of jackets, singlets, armbands, etc.
- not consume alcohol before or during the parade
- co-operate with the police
- be prepared to identify to the police any persons in the parade who may be committing any offence against criminal law.

I Policing

Organisers of parades must co-operate with the police from the time of submission of the notice of intention to parade until the parade disperses.

J Dispersal

When a parade has concluded, all those taking part must disperse immediately. It will be the responsibility of the organisers to ensure compliance with instructions in this regard.

K Abiding by Conditions

Organisers must ensure that all participants in any parade have been informed of any conditions imposed. As a general principle, the organiser is responsible for the behaviour of all participants and for ensuring compliance with the Code of Conduct.
